

Messing about in your Garden (in G}..... R.H. Furlong

G//|///|///|///

When the [G] winter is done and [D] Spring has begun

Go [C] messing a-[D7]-bout in your [G] garden

Don't be afraid to [D] dig out your spade

And go [C] digging a-[D7]-bout in your [G] Garden

There are [C] hedges and [G] trees and [D] bushes to [G] clip

And [C] lots of [G] refuse [A7] for the [D7] tip

So [G] don't you recant there's [D7] seedlings to plant

Don't [C] idle a- [D7]-bout in the [G]Garden

There are [C] plenty of [G] flowers [C] with fancy [G] names

And [C] vegetables [G] hiding [A7] under glass [D7] frames

So [G] please don't by pass [D7] Cutting the grass

Keep [C] tidying [D7] up in the [G] Garden.

When your tasks are all done

You can [D] sit in the sun

And re -[C]-lax in your [D] chair in your [G] garden.

With [C] gates and [G] fences [D7] to keep people [G] out

And [C] animal [G] statues [A7] scattered a-[D]-bout

You can [G] have a hot tub and [D] barbecue grub

In the [C] comfort of [D7] your very own [G] garden

There could [C] be water [G] features and [D] ponds full of fish [G]

And your [C] own tennis [G] court if [A7] that's what you [D] wish

You might [G] excel at your game and [D] export your fame

By [C] messing a-[D7]-bout in your [G] Garden

[SLOWLY]

By [C] messing a-[D7]-bout in your [G] Garden [D7 C]