When the world is free.

(C///|G7/)

There'll be (C) blue skys (Em) over the (F) streets of (C) Nottingham
(Dm) tomorrow (G7) just you wait and (C) see, (G7) there'll be (C) childrens (Em) laughter, and (F) no masks (C) ever after,
To-(Dm)-morrow (G7) when the world is (C) free. (C7)

The (F) shops will open their doors, and (C) planes will take off once (C7)
more, and Billy (F) will visit his (G) Gran,
on a (D7) far off foreign (G) shore

(G7) There'll be (C) hugs and (Em) kissing and all (F) we've been (C) missing,
to-(Dm)-morrow, (G7) just you wait and (C) see.

The (F) Cinemas will show their screens,
the (C) theatres will bloom (C7) once (C7) more,
and singers (F) will sing their (G) songs,
in (D7) large arenas when they (G) tour.

(G7) There will be (C) freedom and (Em) laughter, less (F) pain ever (C) after,

to-(Dm)-morrow (G7) when the world is free, (C///)
to-(Dm)-morrow (G7) just you wait and (C) see.
